

The seneye.me dashboard is designed to be your eyes on your aquarium or pond water chemistry from anywhere in the world. It gives you up to date information and rich history. You can see a demo of each dash by clicking on the image below.

There are plenty of seneye.me articles with tips and advice to look at, but these ones will really help you better understand what's on seneye.me and how to use it if you're new to seneye.

Dashboard overview.

Changing alert levels.

Changing temperature units.

Changing account email and password.

Subscribe to the seneye newsletter.